

2019 Roger O'Sullivan Award

APPLICATION FORM

Applications close on Friday 27 September, 2019

Application Details:

Describe an initiative your school has implemented that is focused on school, parent and community partnership that has led to improved student outcomes in faith development, learning and wellbeing.

Your written application should outline in detail:

1. Background about the initiative and how it came about.
2. How the initiative has improved or built upon parent, community and school engagement.
3. What impact the initiative has had on the faith formation, learning and wellbeing outcomes of students.
4. How all stakeholders - parents/carers, students, teachers, school staff, the parish and community have been involved and engaged in the initiative.
5. The intentional and unexpected outcomes of the project.
6. How is sustainability built into the initiative?
7. If you won the Award, how would you spend the $4000 prize money?
